

WAKE FOREST LAW

At A Glance

Wake Forest University School of Law consistently ranks highly among ABA accredited law schools listed in the U.S. News & World Report. We're even more proud that our legal writing program is ranked #6 in the country. With the combination of our rigorous curriculum and experiential learning commitment, as well as our ground-breaking Professional Development Course, our students are fully prepared to enter and succeed in today's legal market. At Wake Forest, we educate the whole professional for a lifetime.

Quick Facts:

- Graduates of the class of 2019 accepted positions in 20 states across the country and the District of Columbia, as well as 1 foreign country.
- Students in the 2020 entering class boasted a median LSAT score of 163 and a median undergraduate GPA of 3.74.
- Students in the 2020 entering class came from 23 states and 64 colleges & universities.

"[Our 1L summer intern] produced a thorough, succinct analysis of a nuanced fiduciary duty question. Her memo was extraordinarily good—particularly when considering that she had not yet taken corporations. The memo would have been well done by a junior associate at a large law firm. Very well done!" -

General counsel of technology company, Raleigh, NC